

CO-3

MPLA Awards Committee
May 2007 Board Report

The committee has begun to look at the descriptions for each of the awards to see if the award is still appropriate and if so, is there a better description for the award. We will also be looking at the Board Choice Award to see how we get the people better recognized, and renewing and more involved after that first year.

Respectfully submitted,
Beth Avery