

CO-8

Professional Development Committee Report, January 2011

The committee meetings were cancelled in October and December as no new grant applications were received. The budget information can be found in the Income & Expense report. In summary the number of grants that were awarded used less than half of the money budgeted and there are no outstanding requests.

A summary of the Professional Development Survey is being submitted separately.

David Alexander