

President's Report
Eileen Wright
October 2009

0-1

I sent a formal letter of acceptance to Arizona Library Association for our joint conference in 2014.

So, the upcoming joint conference dates are:

Oklahoma Library Association: Oklahoma City, 2010

Montana Library Association: Billings, MT 2011

Nebraska Library Association: Omaha, 2012

North Dakota and South Dakota Library Association: Sioux Falls, 2013

Arizona Library Association: Phoenix, 2014

Most of my work between our last board meeting and today has been in regards to the Leadership Institute, so I will have you refer to Dan's report.

I was heading to Aberdeen, South Dakota last week, and the weather turned a little ugly. As many of you may have heard we (Montana) decided to skip fall and head straight into winter. Hence, I was unable to attend the conference. I thank Michael for the arrangements he had made for me to attend the conference. I am still scheduled to head to Nebraska for their State conference next week (Oct. 28-30).

Upcoming board meetings:

Wed., Jan. 20, 2010 1:00pm MT by phone

Sun., April 18, 2010 TBA on time (at conference)
