Notes:

I have dealt with both National Hirschfeld (prints the MPLA Newsletter) and Wandel Press in Denver. National Hirschfeld, a very large regional firm, has been reliable and easy to work with, though I haven't had experience with their 4-color products. Wandel Press produces very high quality printing and I've worked with the same rep for over 20 years with excellent service and quality. Office Max sends color printing out; does black and white copying in-house. I have no experience with Professional Mailing & Marketing except phone contacts from a sales person whose answers to my questions were vague. --JZ
