The MPLA Newsletter has been published online-only since earlier this year. A decision needs to be made for 2011 and onward. I would recommend permanently publishing the MPLA Newsletter online-only. I have received no complaints about discontinuing the paper format and several have commented on the convenience of having the newsletter electronically. I especially like the flexibility because the number of pages can fit the information received rather than having to be in multiples of four pages.

Deadline for news for the December 2010 issue of the Newsletter is November 1. I will use the information from your reports for the October 27 board meeting, but if you have any other news to add please send it on.

As always, a plea for great photos, especially of you or your colleagues doing fun things at work, home or on vacation! Photos of your pets and babies/grand-babies are always welcome additions! MPLA is about our members, and photos of people reinforces this.

Thanks!

Judy
