

ST-7

New Mexico State Representative

November 2014

MPLA Activities

- Attended the NMLA Library Association executive board meeting on Oct. 22 and 4 telephone conference calls.
- Sent message to NMLA listserv advertising MPLA newsletter editor position.
- Submitted information to NMLA newsletters.
- Submitted information to MPLA newsletters.
- Set up a table at the NMLA annual conference October 22-14 in Ruidoso. Sent messages to NMLA membership to advertise the MPLA memberships. 10 winners from NM were drawn for free MPLA memberships from a total of 28 entries (new record).
- Presented “Professional Alphabet Soup—Your Benefits” at NMLA Annual Conference. This program highlight benefits of belonging to professional organizations and how to achieve the best “fit.”

New Mexico news:

- I was appointed to and participated in NMLA Nominating Committee activities.
- NMLA will continue to identify changes needed from the revision of the By-laws allowing for Annual Conference in fall. Terms of the existing officers were extended to the Annual Conference 2015.
- NMLA will investigate hiring an administrator to aid the Treasurer.
- 2015 Mini-conference will be in Laguna.
- 2015 NMLA conference will be in the Albuquerque area.
- NMLA will continue the Albertson’s fundraising activities and develop the Amazon link for fundraising.
- Report of the 2014 awards was sent to Newsletter.
- Budget issues and membership remain a priority with NMLA.

Submitted

LeAnn Weller