

New Mexico Representative MPLA Board Report

- MPLA Table at the Conference – A leather box has been purchased to hold items that will be raffled off at the joint conference. Several State Representatives have mailed their items to New Mexico. The raffle will conclude on Friday at 2pm, along with all other vendor auctions and raffles at the conference. Most timeslots for running the MPLA table have been filled. The table schedule can be found on this website: www.mplatable.blogspot.com. Thank you to all who have volunteered to spend time at the table representing MPLA!
- New Mexico Library Association – The NMLA Board held a planning retreat on the morning of January 12th. The association will be making structural changes in the years ahead. Work will begin on integrating Special Interest Groups into the Association's leadership. A taskforce will also evaluate the responsibilities of the Vice President.
- Mini Conference Dates Set – NMLA has set the dates for the fall Mini Conference in Las Vegas, New Mexico for October 11th and 12th. Based on the positive response received at the 2006 Mini Conference, organizers have decided to extend the conference by half a day. Sessions will begin on the afternoon of the 11th and continue through the afternoon of the 12th.

Submitted by Valerie Nye
March, 2007