MPLA Board Report
Wyoming Library Association Representative
Richard Landreth, July 2007

- In April 2007 four sections of the Wyoming Library Association met in Casper for a mini-conference. (Schools, Children/Young Adult, Public and Para-professional sections.) Workshops on personal and professional advocacy were presented and the Wyoming Youth Book Awards Committees met.
- The next scheduled meeting for WLA is in September during Conference. Cheyenne will be hosting the WLA Conference this year, September 12th-15th, in conjunction with the Wyoming Book Festival. (The Wyoming State Quarter begins circulation during this week as well!)
