

Library Director Grand Island Public Library

The City of Grand Island, Nebraska, is seeking a highly qualified candidate to fill their Library Director position. The Library Director will plan, direct and review the activities and operations of the Grand Island Public Library.

The ideal candidate possesses a comprehensive knowledge of public library operations, budgeting, hiring of personnel and working with community organizations.

Successful candidates will possess a Master of Library Science degree from an American Library Association accredited college or university. Six years of increasingly responsible experience in a public library including four years of administrative or supervisory responsibility.

The salary range is $93,445.25-$142,203.57 annually commensurate with experience and qualifications plus excellent fringe benefits.

For additional information on this outstanding opportunity and to apply, visit the City of Grand Island's website at www.grand-island.com/jobs. Position will remain open until filled.
EO/AAE/M/F/D/V/G